

TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR KITCHEN INSTALLATION

1. Introduction

This contract is between the customer ("You") and the company ("We", "Us", or "Our"). By entering into this contract, You agree to the terms and conditions outlined below.

2. Appointment of Third-Party Installer

The installer is an independent contractor engaged by you. The third-party installer is a professional entity that has been vetted and approved by Us to ensure the quality of installation.

3. Installation

The third-party installer will carry out the installation of the kitchen as per the agreed schedule and specifications. Any changes or modifications to the installation process or design must be communicated and approved by Us.

4. Payment

Payment for the installation will be as per the agreed quotation. Any additional costs arising due to changes in specifications will be communicated and approved by You. Any additional works requested by You may incur additional charges.

5. Liability

While We ensure that the third-party installer is of high professional standards, We are not directly responsible for any damages or issues arising from the installation process. However, We will facilitate any communication or resolution between You and the third-party installer.

6. Installation Warranty

We provide a one (1) year warranty on installation workmanship which covers the workmanship of the installation and does not cover-

- Natural movement of timber
- Environmental conditions including heat, humidity or sunlight
- Damage caused by third parties or other contractors
- Misuse, accidental damage or improper maintenance

7. Cancellation

You may cancel the contract within 7 days, as per the cancellation policy. Any deposits made may be non-refundable after a certain period.

8. Disputes

Any disputes arising from this contract will be addressed through mediation or legal channels, as deemed necessary.

9. Governing Law

This contract is governed by the laws of England and Wales.

10. Acknowledgment

By proceeding with installation, You acknowledge that Sheraton Interiors acts only as an introducer to the installer and that the installation services are provided independently by the installer.
